

Richmond Group consortium of Management Consultants: November meeting

Saturday 8th November 2008

main topic: The essential role of Emotional Intelligence during economic crisis
speaker: Jo Maddocks, Founder, JCA Occupational Psychologists

Jo will explain how Emotional intelligence can have significant benefits in how effectively we apply our IQ and manage our personality to make the right decisions and act appropriately during stressful and challenging times. Participants will also be shown practical ways to measure and develop EI, and what makes an emotionally intelligent organisation.

before coffee: Martial Arts and Management
speaker: Mike Barnato

Mike will talk about how martial arts can help you deliver great consultancy and floor your opponents

The Richmond Group is the country's leading consortium of management consultants working independently or in small practices. We hold regular meetings on six Saturday mornings each year.
